The request filed on 4/21/2010 for a Request for Continuing Examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114 is acceptable and an RCE has been established. Any previous finality is hereby withdrawn and a new action on the merits follows. Any newly-submitted claims have been added. An action on the RCE follows.

The status of the claims is as follows:

Claim 4 has been cancelled; and Claims 1-3 and 5-16 are herein addressed below.

The drawings are objected to because Figures 1-2 fail to show where the cross-sectional views are taken from. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The applicant's substitute specification dated 9/29/2006 has been approved by the Examiner.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 5, 8-12, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shimizu (6,758,012 B2). As shown in detail below, Shimizu (6,758,012 B2) discloses a vehicle having a vehicle door (column 3, line 14, i.e.,) having a module (all inner mechanisms of a vehicle door), a carrier part (24) integrally formed with a drum housing (24a) having side walls, a back wall having a thrust bearing integrally formed thereon, and the housing (24a) having a first diameter area (see Figure below) and a second diameter area larger than the first diameter area (see Figure below).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 6, 7, 13, 14, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shimizu (6,758,012 B2). Shimizu (6,758,012 B2) fails to disclose the first and second diameter areas to be 35 to 65mm and 20 to 40mm respectively and relative proportions of the first and second areas. With respect to claims 6 and 13, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide the first and second areas to be 35 to 65mm and 20 to 40mm respectively since the dimensions are a matter of design choice and the drum housing having these dimensions would operate equally as well. Furthermore, it would have been a matter of design choice to provide such tolerances within the automobile industry and specifically within a vehicle door having a cable housing. With respect to claims 7, 14, and 16, it would have been further obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide to adjust the two heights to accommodate different size cable drums of a motor vehicle and the housing of Shimizu (6,758,012 B2) would operate equally as well when the areas within the housing are adjusted.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-3 and 5-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Several patents have been cited which disclose cable drum housings similar to that of the applicant's invention.
